with Sally

● "I'm really going to keep my New Year's resolutions this year," John mused as he helped himself to a small snack from the refrigerator, consisting of Westlake Market's little yellow salad tomatoes, a slice of ham from Farmer's Meat company, a generous portion of deviled-egg mix, made with Robertson Egg Store's fresh ranch eggs, and a chunk of Monterey cream cheese from Lucca Ravioli, all balanced precariously between two, (or was it three?) slices of French bread from Geneva Bakery.

● "It seems I've heard that before," we scoffed, pouring him a glass of Mission Creamery milk.

● "There you go, always making fun of me when I try to do something to build my character," accused John, munching morosely on his masterpiece. "If you'd give me half a chance to prove my good intentions I'd never fail. But I'll show you," he added grimly. "You just wait and see!"

● "Here's your suit from Beeson Cleaners, dear," we called. "Hurry and put it on. One of your resolutions is never to be more than half an hour late, and we have a date at the Hilltop Lodge."

● "That goes into effect in 1940. It's only nine o'clock now, so I can be as late as I want tonight. Nyah!" John left for his room.

● "Anything you want, Mom, before I go to bed?" It was Sammy, still imbued with the Christmas spirit.

● "Well, you can run down to the Castle Garden grocery, pick up some tomato juice and then get some aspirin tablets at Edwards Drug store, Sammy. Just in case Daddy forgets his resolutions."

● "Okay, Mom," Sammy said, adding: "Then can I go to the Daly City theater tomorrow, Mom, to see 'Honeymoon in Bali'?"

● We should have known there was a catch to it, but we consented, so Sammy was off for the pound of cure in case the ounce of prevention fell through.

● People are still talking about it. John, usually the life of any party, sitting sternly in a corner, viewing the festivities in a cold and aloof manner. Even Sally was unnerved by his air of noble restraint and began to have secret doubts about New Year's resolutions. The party was a flop.

● It was the next day, while we were buying some lovely sirloin steaks in at Milo's, that we definitely decided against New Year's resolutions. We overheard Mrs. Serosimo remark to her husband, "Why can't you be like John, Sally's husband?"

● "Thank heavens I'm not!" Mr. Serosimo exclaimed fervently. "Did you see him last night? I'll bet they aren't even going to the big whist party at Eagles hall Tuesday night."

● "Well, I'm glad you're not like him too" confessed Mrs. Serosimo. "Poor Sally!"

● That finished us. Mrs. Serosimo was right. Life was unbearable with such a noble husband. He hadn't raided the new refrigerator from Byrne's after the party. He had screwed the top on the toothpaste tube. He had even refrained from reading the paper until after breakfast. It was unnatural.

● The argument at home lasted for nearly an hour, but we finally convinced John that we'd never mention New Year's resolutions again if he would only go back to being himself once more. We assured him that he had a noble character but begged him please to spare us. Sammy likes him better the old way, too.

Military Buttons

One of the greatest collections of military buttons is owned by Robert S. Duncan of Toronto, Canada. He has 2,000 army buttons which have come from every section of the British empire and from 17 other countries. They are divided into 31 groups mounted on corrugated boards covered with paper.

Windy Business

Looking up from hoeing near his colony of overnight cabins at Manchester, Maine, H. S. Fearebay saw one of the small buildings tumbling haphazardly above the treetops, finally landing in a nearby field. A freak whirlwind had scooped up the cabin from a cluster of 12.

Play Whist January 2

Local whist players will start the New Year right with a huge card party at Eagles hall Tuesday evening, January 2, at 8:45 p. m.

The affair is sponsored by Vista Grande Circle No. 253, Ancient Order of Foresters, with Mrs. F. H. Rickmann as chairman. Mrs. Rickmann was also in charge of last year's first whist party.

Many valuable prizes will be awarded, Mrs. Rickmann stated, and the general public is cordially invited to attend this holiday party.

Silk From Corn Meal

Zein, a protein-like substance from which artificial silk is now being spun, is made from corn meal. Zein filaments can be twisted into yarns from which many kinds of textile fabrics can be woven. The artificial silk made from corn can be dyed to any color desired.

New Use for Microscope

A new use has been found for the electron microscope, by Drs. Abner Wolf, David Cowen, and Beryl Page of Columbia university. This new super-sharp microscope is able to reveal the exact location, in the cells of glands, muscles, and other tissues, of vital minerals, such as calcium and phosphorus.

Roman Church

One of the places in Rome which interests American visitors is the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore whose gilded ceiling designed by Sangallo is covered with the first gold which Columbus brought from the New world.

Coat and Dress Styled With Youthful 'Swing' Silhouette

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THE "swing" technique persists in costume styling throughout the later showings of winter coat and dress collections. The fact that fullness has become an important factor in the new silhouette is no barrier to a slenderizing outcome. Thanks to the cunning craft and consummate art of modern designers the problem has been so victoriously met that whether you be sylphlike or more or less rotund in figure you will find that the smart, new fashions that are saying it with a "swing" are actually very flattering.

In the illustration three highly successful modes are shown each of which makes "swing" its theme. The long coat and dress ensemble of gray wool to the right in the group is typical of the trend to fitted silhouettes that take on fullness about the hemline. It is just such wool classics as this that are finding acceptance with best dressed women. The flair for daytime dresses made of pastel wools (just the type to wear under your fur coat) done in the simplest possible fashion with fitted waists and flaring skirts is a pleasing gesture which fashion is making.

Centered in the picture is a frock of sage green wool featuring fitted slenderizing princess lines that adopt an interesting tuck technique. Here again a generously full hemline swings into sprightly grace. A chubby mouton bolero complemented with a green feather-trimmed pill-box hat made of matching mouton sounds an ultra chic note.

The exceedingly goodlooking tunic dress to the left in the picture demonstrates what happens when a distinguished designer such as Molyneaux of Paris takes the swing idea and multiplies it by two. This very pleasing dress with its double swing silhouette is of stiff black faille (a high fashion fabric this season). Its tunic and skirt zip up the front. A gold clip finishes its heart shaped neckline. Here is a grand example of a basic black dress that invites stunning jewelry ensembles or dashes of color which this season's accessories exploit.

Speaking of the new fullness in skirts, a topic of utmost significance in current styles, the question has often been brought up as to its positioning, whether it should be at the back or sides or brought to the front. The answer is no matter where the fullness, just so there is fullness somewhere. So far as the sports swagger coat is concerned the news is definitely that of back flares contrived via pleats or gores or circular cut.

Dress coats are made with fitted waists and skirts that often flare all-around. So widespread is the favor for flares even the newest fur coats are made with fitted waists and full skirts.

House Fly Massacre

Pupils of the ninth grade at Tiffin, Ohio, told that every housefly killed now means millions less later in the season, killed 8,226 of the insects in one week. They computed that their victims would have been ancestors of 42,336,000,000,000,000 buzzing, disease-breeding descendants by next fall.

Chloride Aids Cotton

According to a recent research report, the sprouting of cotton seed is materially increased by treatment with a weak mixture of ethyl mercury-phosphate or chloride.

Sunniest German Resort

The Black forest of Germany is white in winter when the ski races are held and black in summer, if the shadows beneath its trees can be called black. Actually, Freudenstadt in the Black forest is famous as the sunniest resort in Germany.

Canadians Like Eggs

The Canadian bureau of statistics estimated that Canadians lead all people of the world in the consumption of eggs. The per capita consumption is approximately 400 eggs a year.

Fur Ensemble Now Is Important News

You have seen a fur-clad trapper with his bushy fur hat, fur gloves and fur jacket. Add a big muff to these items and you have somewhat of a picture of the first impression ladies of fashion make in their dramatic fur ensembles.

The importance of fur millinery cannot be overemphasized. Whatever you do, be sure that you keep in mind that your fur coat or jacket or cape must be matched with a spectacular hat of the same fur.

As to muffs this season, they are huge or of novel design. You can even get fur trimmed gloves.

With cloth suits and coats the smartest thing is an "as costly as thy purse can buy" neckpiece the long fur stole being especially chic, and don't forget that a matching fur muff is inevitable this season.

Style and Comfort In New Stockings

The long-hoped-for has happened, in that silk stockings that are wool-lined are announced for winter wear. They might properly be classed as a necessary luxury in that being up to date, they are selling only in the higher-class shops. In appearance they look as if they might be a fine silk service type but the wearer knows of the warmth and glow that the wool lining imparts.

Velvet Trimmed Fedora

A black felt fedora with an underbrim faced with velvet, and a black velvet snood is a new creation shown by Reboux to accompany dressy street costumes.

Snakeskin Accessories

Snakeskin, dyed a brilliant electric blue, is used to make an unusual bolero and beret worn as accessories to a rich chocolate-colored crepe frock.

The average age of passenger cars in use in the United States is estimated at 4½ years.

MEN LIKE BEANS

Says Dorothy Greig

PROBABLY every woman at some time or other has thought out loud, "Now what can we have that's simple and quick?" And had that ever helpful male suggest, "How about beans?"

Pork Chops baked on top of pork and beans are appetizing on a cold night.

Men, as we all know, like pork and beans. They like them served just as they come from the can and they like them with other things, too. Pork and beans, brown and flavorsome are superbly satisfying to hungry appetites.

One of our favorite pork and bean dishes is this baked pork chop casserole. Along with it are served sliced tomatoes, celery hearts and fresh crusty rolls. Followed by a simple dessert it makes a good meal indeed:

Hungry Man's Casserole

6 - 6 pork chops
2 cans pork and beans (16-oz. size)
Salt and pepper

Pan Sauce

1 tablespoon of fat and drippings in the pan
3-4 tablespoons of ketchup
2 tablespoons of water

Brown the pork chops on both sides in a skillet. Sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Put two cans of pork and beans in a casserole dish, arrange the browned pork chops on top of the beans. Then pour all except one tablespoon of fat from pork chops out of skillet. Add ketchup and water and heat with fat to boiling point. Pour the pan sauce over the pork chops and bake in a moderate (375° F.) oven for 50-60 minutes.

TURKEY dishes for HOLIDAY PARTIES

Suggested by Dorothy Greig

MOTHER always claimed that turkey was a perfect party food. "It just naturally makes people think of good times and special occasions with high feasting," she said. And it does. It is a holiday dish.

Individual Turkey Rolls served with Mushroom Sauce.

Then, too, everyone likes turkey—another good reason for giving it honored place on holiday party tables.

Turkey can be served in many ways. First, there is roast turkey. For buffet serving bring in a platter of the white and dark meat in hot thin slices flanked by savory stuffing. Or serve it cold accompanied by pickles and relishes.

Then there are jellied turkey molds, turkey a la king, turkey pies, turkey loaves, turkey casseroles—all flavorful dishes for supper or luncheon parties.

One of my own turkey specialties consists of ground turkey rolled and baked in biscuit dough and served with hot mushroom sauce:

INDIVIDUAL TURKEY ROLLS WITH MUSHROOM SAUCE

2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
½ - ⅔ cup milk

Sift the flour, then measure. Add the salt and baking powder to the flour and sift again. Then work the shortening into the flour mixture. Add the milk gradually and mix together until a medium soft dough is formed. Toss on a floured board and roll out in a piece 9 inches wide and 12 inches long. Cut into 3 inch squares, making twelve in all. Spread with turkey mixture, roll and place on a baking sheet seam down. Bake in a hot oven (425°-450° F.) for 15-20 minutes and serve with hot mushroom sauce. Makes 12 rolls.

Turkey Mixture:

1½ cups ground turkey
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons turkey gravy

Mix turkey, turkey gravy and seasonings all together. Spread 1 spoonful of mixture on each pastry square.

Mushroom Sauce:

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ cup milk

Empty the condensed cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan. Stir well and then add the milk. Heat, but do not boil. Serve over the "Individual Turkey Rolls".

This next dish is a handsome one to set on any party table.

CREAMED TURKEY IN FESTIVE RICE RING

Creamed Turkey:

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
⅓ cup milk
1 egg yolk
1 cup turkey, diced

Empty the can of cream of mushroom soup into a saucepan and stir well. Then add the milk and heat. Beat in the egg yolk and then add the diced turkey. Serve in the center of the "Festive Rice Ring."

Festive Rice Ring:

2 tablespoons butter
4 cups rice (cooked)
1 cup green peas, cooked
2 tablespoons pimiento, diced

Melt the butter in a saucepan. Add the rice (which has been cooked in boiling salted water), green peas and pimiento, and mix gently. Put the hot rice mixture into a buttered ring mold and then turn out on plate. Pour the "Creamed Turkey" into the center of rice ring.

This Baked Roly-Poly Has Meat Filling

Says Dorothy Greig

ANYONE looking at these fresh-from-the-oven, meat filled rolls would never guess that but a little while ago the meat was the last surviving scraps of Sunday's roast. But it's true, and that is one reason I like this dish . . . it makes such good use of left-over meat.

The other reason is that these tender biscuit meat rolls are savory in themselves and doubly so served with spicy mock turtle sauce:

Baked Meat Roly-Poly

Filling for Roll:

1 tablespoon shortening or butter
¼ cup onions, chopped
2 cups ground beef
½ cup condensed tomato soup or roast beef gravy

Cook the onion in the melted fat until soft. Then add the ground beef and tomato soup, or beef gravy. Season with salt and pepper, if necessary. Spread this on the biscuit dough.

Dough for Roll:

2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
4 tablespoons shortening
⅔ cup milk

Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Then cut in the shortening and add the milk and make a stiff dough. Roll out the dough in a piece about 9 by 12 inches. Spread the dough with the meat filling and roll lengthwise like a jelly roll or cinnamon bun. Cut in 1¼-1½ inch slices and place cut side down on a baking sheet or pan. Bake in a 400 degree oven for 15-20 minutes, depending on the thickness of the roll. Serves 6-9.

Mock Turtle Sauce:

1 can condensed mock turtle soup
1 tablespoons water

Empty the mock turtle soup into a saucepan. Add the water, heat and serve over the Roly-Poly.

Flounder Houses

A flounder house is a house with one wall entirely blank, built against a party line, and a single pitch roof sloping downward toward the opposite, lower side, thus shedding water on the owner's property. This type was often used for the rear extension of residences. They were built during the Eighteenth century. There are some of them now in Alexandria and Philadelphia.

Check Program Popularity

The popularity of radio-programs can now be checked by the advertisers, by means of two new automatic devices which record the stations to which the listeners tune in.

"The Women" Stars Norma Shearer, Crawford, Russell

Heralded as one of the most unusual films ever to come out of Hollywood, "The Women," with an all-star cast of 135 actresses headed by Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford and Rosalind Russell, is now playing at the Daly City theatre.

The story, based upon Clare Boothe's Broadway stage success of the same name, weaves the everyday experiences of women into an exciting comedy-drama into which laughs and tears are skillfully blended. Ultra-modern settings, smart clothes and a fashion parade add eye-filling beauty as a background to the razor-sharp dialogue.

Miss Shearer appears as Mary Haines, her first modern society role since "Riptide." Joan Crawford is seen as the siren Crystal Allen, and Rosalind Russell as the inveterate gossip, Sylvia Fowler.

The story centers about Norma Shearer as a woman whose happiness and home are temporarily wrecked by gossip, and her fight to regain the life that had been snatched from her.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Way Down South," starring Bobby Breen and Allen Jenkins.

Beginning January 3, the Daly City theatre will inaugurate Sweetheart Beautyware gifts, free to feminine patrons. A complete set is now on display in the foyer of the theatre.

Roman Catholic Tribunal

The Sacra Romana Rota is one of the three great tribunals of the Roman Catholic church. To it are assigned all contentious cases that require a judicial investigation with proof; except the so-called major cases. It also acts as a court of appeals. The auditors are appointed by the pope and must be both priests and prelates and have a doctor's degree in both theology and canon law. Auditors do not actively function after 70 years of age. The head of the Rota at present is His Serene Excellency, Msgr. Graziolo Decano, Collegio dei Prelate Uditori, Vatican City.

Indian Bible Oldest

The first Bible published in America was printed in the Indian language after the translation of the missionary John Eliot. It was issued in 1663, more than a century before part of the Book was published in English in 1777. A few years later, in 1782, a complete English version was issued in Philadelphia.

Flattery of Lace

Fashion is placing increasing emphasis on the flattery of lace for the mature woman. The exquisite black laces that seem this season more beautiful than ever before have a gracious dignity about them that tunes perfectly to womanly charm. With the low neckline of the dress pictured a string of pearls is most enhancing. Long velvet gloves repeat the color accent of the velvet flowers worn by this lovely lady. The dress is a rayon Chantilly. The dress comes in black, royal blue, wine and grape.

Silver Nailheads

Rows of tiny silver nailheads sewn to collar, cuffs and hemline are the effective trim suggested by one designer for a plain black dress.

Call for Glitter Brings Up Metals

In harmony with the call for glitter in fashions this winter is the return to favor of metal weaves for dinner gowns for cocktail frocks, and especially smart is the blouse of rich lame to be worn with the velvet afternoon suit or with the long formal skirt at evening functions.

Milliners report a big demand for exotic looking turbans of metal cloth draped in oriental fashion, these to match the gowns or blouses or jackets with which they are worn. These flattering turbans look stunning with winter furs and women who like to dress for occasion are playing up the idea of the metal-draped turban for all it is worth.

Metal jackets that button with jeweled buttons are definitely good style for evening worn with the black velvet or crepe formal skirt.

Bright Red Leads The Color Parade

Bright red triumphs in the color realm. Bright red for your hat, your scarf, and a spectacular turn of affairs is bright red gloves worn with your dark furs.

Bright red jackets top dark skirts day and evening, the more formal ones scintillating with glittering embroidery. Young girls love the new long red capes or coats if you prefer, that are so swank for evening wear. Sometimes brass buttons add to their glory.

Corduroy and Wool

Bright corduroy and printed wool are combined in a comfortable ankle-length dinner dress for informal dining at home.

Mantlet

Mantlet is the newest name for the waist length evening jackets of fur with attached hoods.

Italian Popes

Italy is the native country of 214 of the 261 popes.

Fur Ensemble

You are supposed to ensemble your furs this season. You can go so far as to wear hat, jacket, muff and gloves of fur or at least trimmed with fur. A hat and jacket ensemble of ermine trimmed in rich brown fur is here shown. This is an adorable "set" to wear to grand opera or to formal dances during the winter. Broad squared shoulders and modified bracelet-length bishop sleeves are outstanding style features. The small ermine beret that completes the ensemble is particularly chic and attractive.

Flour-Testing Device

A flour-testing device operated by the "electric eye" has just been perfected in Russia, to determine the bran-content of any given sample of flour within five minutes.

Paris Flashes

The short evening gown is a new trend.

Fashions are more conservative than a year ago.

Many Lanvin afternoon frocks are richly embroidered.

Turbans in multi-color necktie silks are in exotic colors.

Long capes is a military influence featured by several houses.

Milliners plan to use many fabrics, especially jersey, also wool lace.

Long knitted stockings in bright colors with matching gloves are selling.

Sprightly buttons and decorative epaulets are favored trimming features.

Boutonnieres of colored glass flowers concealing tiny electric lights are worn with the tailored suit.

Fur Hats Favored For Winter Wear

Black with flashes of bright red is a popular color alliance for millinery this winter. Fur hats are more important than ever and there is a wealth of charming little dinner hats. Worn far forward on the forehead is one new dinner hat, a scrap of crimson velvet ribbon twisted into a turban and covered with natural-looking red and pink roses. Brown beaver felt trimmed with pink is a formula for some of the prettiest hats seen in many a season. Off-the-face hats are staging a big comeback, if indeed it can be said that they ever did go out of fashion. Frequently red ribbon tabs hold back the brim.

Television Make-Up

Due to the fact that the television camera does not record red, green make-up has to be used in preparing performers for television broadcasts.

Cermak Memorial

The Cermak Memorial plaque, in Bayfront park at Miami, bears the following inscription: "I'm glad it was me instead of you." Anton J. Cermak, mayor of Chicago—Born May 9, 1873, Kladno, Czecho-Slovakia—Died March 6, 1933, Miami, Fla. It was here February 15, 1933, that an attempt was made to assassinate Franklin Delano Roosevelt. This shot mortally wounded Anton J. Cermak who then uttered the immortal words quoted above. Dedicated March 6, 1939.

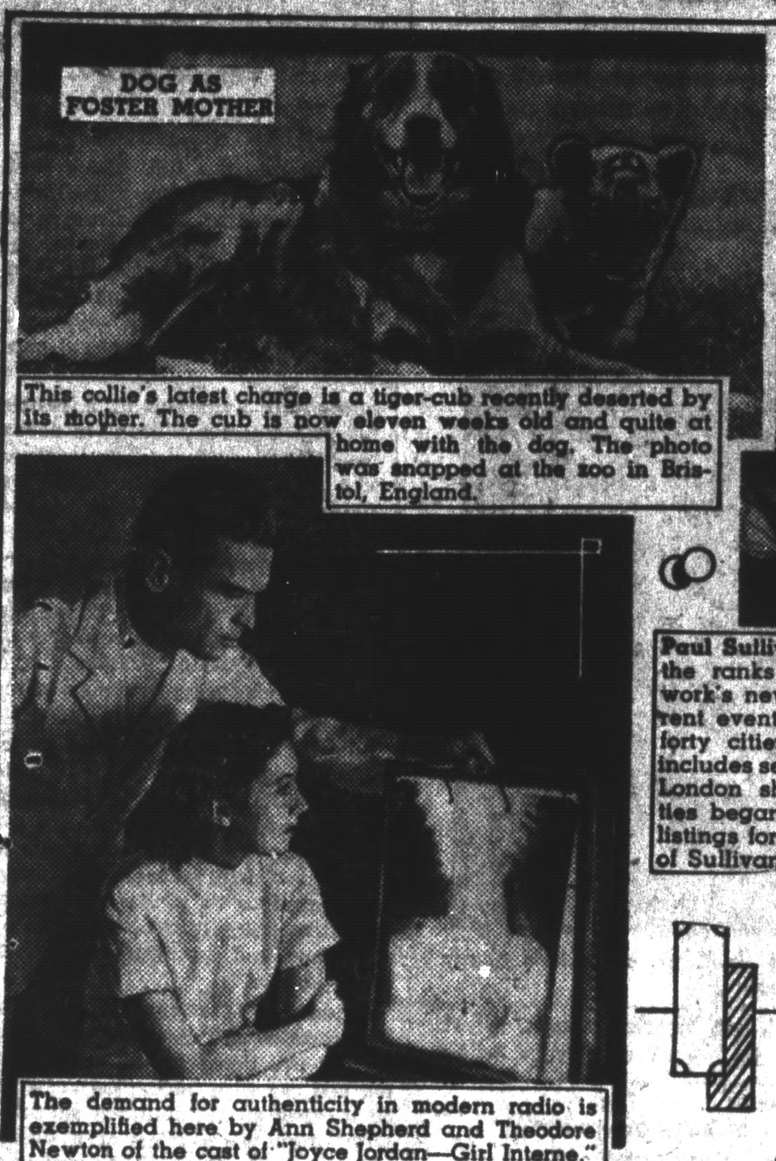
Turkish Messengers

The ancient Turkish nobles employed many lackeys and footmen, called peichs, as messengers. These couriers ran in their bare feet until continuous exercise of this sort over all types of roads so deadened and calloused their feet that they were able to shoe themselves with horseshoes. To increase the resemblance between themselves and horses they carried a silver bit in their mouths while on errands for their masters.

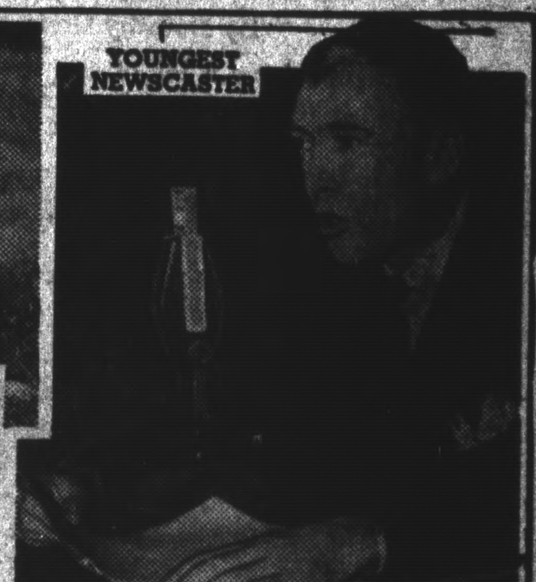
'In France's Fields'

Every American is familiar with John McCrae's World war poem "In Flanders' Fields"; but not many know that he himself was killed in 1918 and was buried in a quiet little war cemetery at Wimereux, France, where hundreds visit his grave every year.

THE RECORD SNAPSHOTS



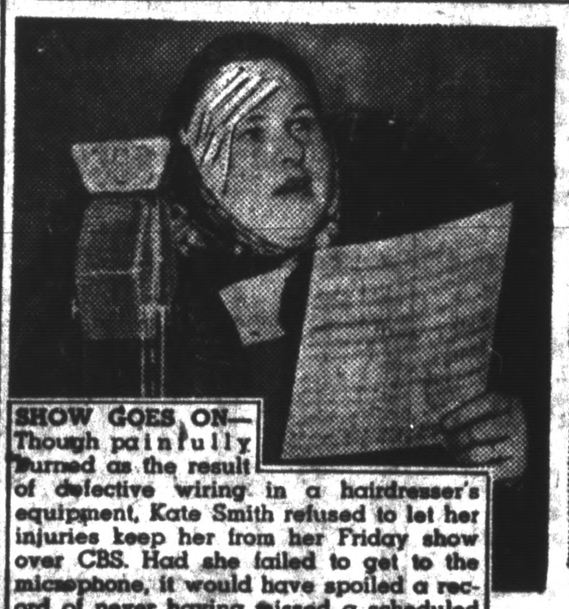
This collie's latest charge is a tiger-cub recently deserted by its mother. The cub is now eleven weeks old and quite at home with the dog. The photo was snapped at the zoo in Bristol, England.



Paul Sullivan, newest addition to the ranks of the Columbia network's newsmen, broadcasts current events six nights a week in forty cities. His war experience includes several broadcasts from London shortly after hostilities began. See your local listings for the exact time of Sullivan's broadcasts.

The demand for authenticity in modern radio is exemplified here by Ann Shepherd and Theodore Newton of the cast of "Joyce Jordan—Girl Interne." The fluoroscope, which they are examining is only one of the many required subjects in the field of medicine with which actors in this show must be familiar. The program is broadcast daily on CBS.

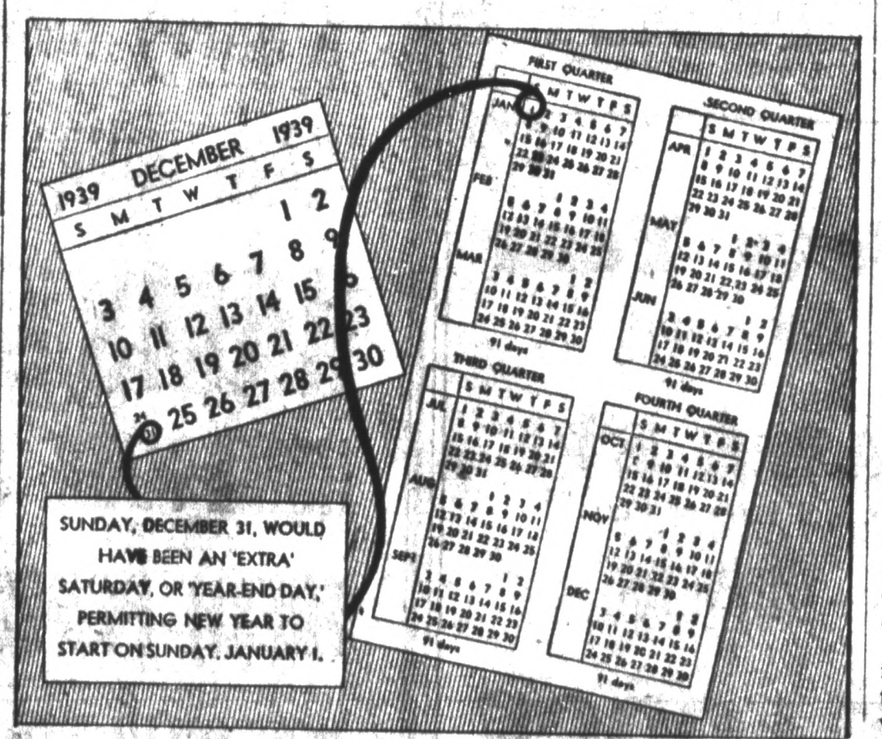
Ann Sheridan, the oomph girl, takes to the ice—yo-ho! Skaters, here's a partner who will increase any man's speed.



SHOW GOES ON—Though painfully burned as the result of defective wiring in a hairdresser's equipment, Kate Smith refused to let her injuries keep her from her Friday show over CBS. Had she failed to get to the microphone, it would have spoiled a record of never having missed a scheduled broadcast in all of her years on the air.

Thirteen Year Old Lad Successful Dairyman—Up at 5:00 a.m. each morning, Harry Prescott, Jr., of Worcester, Mass., is soon out in the barn feeding his goats even before he has had his own breakfast.

New Calendar Plan Must Wait Until 1944



1939 DECEMBER 1939
FIRST QUARTER
SECOND QUARTER
THIRD QUARTER
FOURTH QUARTER
91 days
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 31, WOULD HAVE BEEN AN 'EXTRA' SATURDAY, OR 'YEAR-END DAY,' PERMITTING NEW YEAR TO START ON SUNDAY, JANUARY 1.

Adoption of the proposed uniform calendar, which must begin on a January 1 that falls on Monday, will be postponed at least until December 31, 1944, because the world has ignored the opportunity to start it with 1940. Each "quarter" would be alike under the plan, which would take care of extra days by tacking on a dateless Saturday the last day in each year, and another the last day in June o feach leap year.

Fancy Is Turning To White Accents

Winning Special Favor for Society Occasions.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The opening of the grand opera season has proved decidedly revealing as to the importance of white in the fashion picture. The favor for white was especially sensed in the predominance of white fur wraps, many of ermine, others of white fox with accent among the younger set on cunning jackets of boxy sort or waist depth.

White gowns glittered with embroidery and beadwork, and the use of white brocade patterned in delicate color suggestions were noticeable.

As to daytime fashions, a new note is sounded in perky little white hats that are worn with furs, some of velvet or felt and the newest millinery vogue is the tiny white feather turban. The white hat naturally calls for a responsive white touch in such accessories as white jewelry or white boutonniere plus white gloves.

Using the white accessory theme as a basic thought, black daytime frocks are again taking on immaculate lingerie detail. In fact the black-with-white-accent vogue is a trend of no little significance.

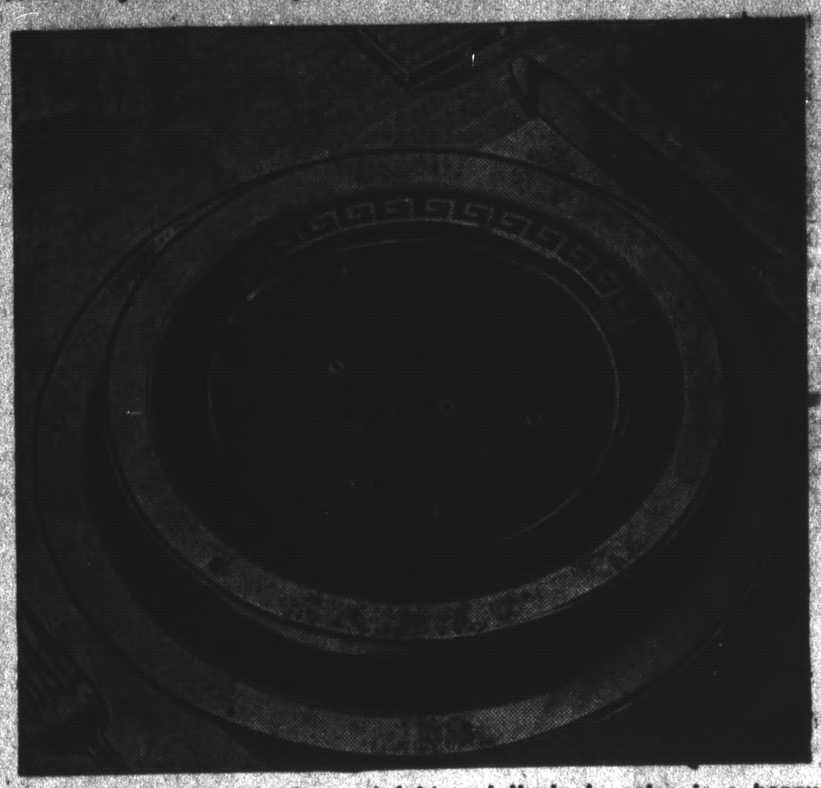
Let Your PARTY SOUPS Be Individual

By Dorothy Greig

A WOMAN can have a lot of fun selecting the most appropriate soup to serve at her luncheon or dinner party. It can keynote not only the dinner but the occasion as well.



Tomato soup—tangy in flavor, bright and lively in color is a happy choice as a party soup.

For instance, when the guests are keen, bright minds, what better choice than tomato soup with its cheerful, lively color and tangy flavor!

Cream of mushroom soup is a wonderful party soup, too, because it is rich, sumptuous and luxurious. There are times and occasions in any hostess' life when that is the effect she wants to create.

Mock turtle, bouillon and consommé with their sophisticated flavors are soups to serve when worldly wise friends gather round your board. And, at the opposite extreme, we choose vegetable soup for a children's party meal.

When you want to show off (which every woman should do occasionally just to keep her ego polished up) you can achieve exciting new flavors by combining one canned soup with another. Or, using an old favorite as a base, go on from there to create a special soup that is all your own.

For example, we give you these two new ideas to add lustre to your reputation as a hostess. One is a tangy soup. The other a creamy, rich soup:

Tomato Consommé

1 can (14-oz.) tomato juice
1 tablespoon tapioca (minute)
1 teaspoon sugar
1 can condensed consommé
½ cup water
Whipped cream

Heat the tomato juice, then add tapioca and sugar and cook until the tapioca is clear. Add the consommé and water, continue heating and serve. Serve one spoonful of whipped cream on each cup of soup. Serves 4-5.

Oyster-Celery Stew

1½ pints oysters with liquor
4 tablespoons butter
1 can condensed celery soup
2½ cups milk
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon paprika

Melt the butter in a saucepan. Add the oysters with liquor and cook until the edges curl. Combine the celery soup with the milk and add to the oysters. Heat to boiling and season. Serves 5.

No Passport Required

Andorra, the tiny country which nestles in the Pyrenees between France and Spain, is the only country in Europe which requires no passport for entry.

Ancient Jew Quarantine

The ancient Jews understood the danger of contagious diseases and certain quarantine regulations are described in the Bible.

Large Wine Cask

The cellar of Heidelberg castle, in Germany, contains a wine cask large enough to furnish refreshment and merriment to an entire army. It holds more than 200,000 bottles of wine.

First English Bible

The first complete English Bible printed was by Miles Coverdale, 1535, dedicated to Henry VIII.

Trend Now Toward Simple Silhouette

Change Is Welcomed After Wild Period Orgy.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Looking into the future one sees a general movement toward simplifying the silhouette. This return to neat normal classic lines will receive a wide welcome after the wild orgy of period fashions and fantastic style influences which have carried on during the last several seasons.

Immediate evidence of a return to becoming and conservative dress is seen in the charming daytime frocks highlighted by fashion for wear under the winter coat. Made of exquisite woolens in lovely pastel shades or styled of handsome wearable bemberg and rayon weaves or in the practical faille and bengaline fabrics with accent on simplicity of line, these classic dresses have brought a refreshing new note of interest into the costume realm.

Another clever move in the direction of simplicity is the neat little classic suits that are tailored of cloth or tweed if you will, but for high-style at its highest emphasis is on the suit with somewhat flaring skirt topped with a shapely jacket, the entire tailored of black faille or bengaline and in some instances black taffeta.

Evidences of a general move in the direction of a more conservative styling are noted in the simple fitted bodices with perhaps a restricted tucking or manipulated seaming with often the placing of a clever pocket or so, also there is less padding at the shoulders, skirts have less of an exaggerated flare. In fact, certain couture houses in Paris are launching straighter skirts for daytime wear.

New Airline Base

Canton island in mid-Pacific is being prepared as a stopping place for a new San Francisco-New Zealand airline.

Style Notes

Neat little black suits are in vogue.

Plum registers among first-choice colors.

Suede mittens in fashionable colors are new.

Jersey is being played up in big way for spring.

Snoods in every conceivable mood play important role.

Wool ensembles are lined and trimmed with gay silk print.

Smart style calls for large fur collar with huge muff to match.

And again black with white accents competes with bright color.

Glitter jacket or blouse with dark floor-length skirt is favorite evening formula.

Solitary Bird

The pied-bill grebe is a solitary bird that likes to sit on the water among the reeds, but it is such a quick mover that it can dive beneath the water swiftly enough to dodge gun shot fire.

Smart Silhouette Is Princess Type

About the smartest silhouette going on record at this moment is the princess type, worn without a belt, the skirt portion made to flare sometimes to an exaggerated degree, although less formal princess modes flare as befits a daytime utility dress made of wool or of silk-and-rayon crepe.

Nor are the new shirtwaists to be outdone when it comes to fullness. The early arrivals for resort wear and for general wear in the spring are made to blouse decidedly, their sleeves on the bishop order that fall into a cuff band. Be sure when you go blouse-shopping to ask for the new type bloused shirtwaist.

With Accessories

The oriental influence in fashions from draped maharajah turbans to harem skirts demands that the jewelry worn must be likewise exotic. At the top in the picture the oriental note is admirably interpreted in the ensemble of costume jewelry called "Temple Bells." Myriads of gilded colorful metal balls strung on fine chains for necklace and matching bracelet, tinkle as you walk. Here's a recipe for looking smart within a limited budget. Take one simple, basic dress, then spice it with striking accessories. The pretty lady shown below in the picture has done just that, assembling a tiny fur-banded pill box with crocheted snood, carrying a suede handbag matched to her belt, each of which are pointed with gold, repeating the gold note in a bib necklace and matching bracelet. Fabric gloves with gay embroidered leather backs add yet another dash of color.

New Motor Bike

A new "motor-assisted" bicycle was exhibited at a recent motorcycle and bicycle show in London. It is driven by a one-horsepower engine and is capable of 30 miles an hour. It will cover 140 miles on one gallon of gasoline.

Disney Correct

Walt Disney hereafter will be correct in depicting white lyrebirds. One just discovered in the Combienbar district of East Gippsland, Australia, is declared by experts to be the first perfect albino lyrebird ever seen.

German Riviera

Don't let a quiz fan catch you on this one: Where is the German Riviera? Travelers say it is at Honnef, not far from Bonn, on the Rhine. It has the best climate in Germany and enjoys spring two weeks earlier than elsewhere in the country.

Keep July 4 in Denmark

Denmark can always be depended on to observe America's Fourth of July, as Danish-Americans have provided a national park at Rebild for its ceremonial celebrations which take place in what is called the Heather Bowl.

Civilization Kills

Civilization proved too much for the youth who left the loneliest isle in the world. After less than a year in London he died. Donald Glass was a direct descendant of the William Glass who founded the settlement at Tristan da Cunha, in the South Atlantic, more than a century ago. Donald left a happy isle, where disease is practically unknown, determined to succeed in the great world. He was accepted by the Boy Scouts, who tried to make life for him something like that in the home from which he came, but they failed to consider the germs that afflict civilization. He fell ill and gradually declined.

Pirates on Ellis Island

Ellis Island once was famous as a place where pirates were hanged and for years was called Gibbett island for that reason.

Early Disease Theory

The germ explanation of disease was advanced by a Viennese scientist, Fracastoria, as early as 1546.

Life of Famous Clown

Toto, the famous clown, whose real name was Armando Novello, was born in Geneva. He became an entertainer of note on the continent, specializing in pantomime and performed before Czar Nicholas of Russia in 1911 and Kaiser Wilhelm in 1913. His American debut was in "Hip, Hip, Hooray," the Hippodrome spectacle of 1915. He returned to Europe for several engagements, making his final royal appearance before King George V and Queen Mary in 1931. He died in the Bronx hospital in New York on December 15, 1938.

Egg Experiment

The University of California experimented for a year to ascertain if egg production could be increased by keeping the hens in cooled henhouses. The answer was, "No." Only one thing was ascertained, the university reported, and this was that in the hot days, the hens were noticeably more comfortable in the cooled henhouses.
